RACES AT BRIGHTWOOD.

Two Class and One Match Event at Brightwood on Wednesday.

Thirty-one horses are named to start in three class races that are to be brought off at a matinee to be given at Brightwood to-morrow. The fields and quality of the entries indicate that this will be the very best of its kind ever attempted at this track.

Besides the class races there will be a match for $100 a side between the trotter Happy Steve, owned by Harry Haight, and the pacer Ben E., owned by Harry Orlin.

The entries for the class races are as follows:

Class A—Frank Thomas enters The Dean; E. F.
Hall, Kathan; Jarvis Brothers, S. D. R.; James Hillman; Howard O. Jones; Seelye; John Benton; Sir Elector; Walter Owsell; Jack Eagle; John Byrne; J. H. Schell; and Sam Stewart, and George Miller, Roberts.

Class B—Peter Taylor enters Jubilation; Robert Browley; John G. Gentry; J. H. Hillman; Bob Hagerty; George Goodacre; Harry Madson; John P. Jones; Robin Hood; Al Moran; Madson; John L. Brown; Miss Goodacre; Lee Denny; Edna G.; E. P. Conner; Nellie Boy, and Sam Goodacre.

Class C—J. J. O'Keefe enters Finch; Robert Browley; Ben Leary; Jarvis Brothers; Beffert Boy; T. E. Shugro; Harry C. Peter Taylor; Fred Jack; John F. Jarvis; Bell Hazel; Wash. Taylor; Red Rock; Larry McGowan; Mossie.

The first race will be called at 1 o'clock.

BASEBALL GOSSIP.

Hugh Jennings is practicing law in Baltimore, but will turn his shingle to the law next spring when he takes hold of the Detroit club.

Sixteen pitchers were tried by the Cardinals last year. That many Whites or Mathewsons would not make a team out of that bunch of misfits.

Christy Mathewson will take the best care of himself this winter, so that he will be as fit as a fiddle next spring. He hopes to regain his 1905 form.

Detroit will give George Mullin $1,000 bonus if he wins thirty games next season.
If George goes after the extra dollar he will be kept a busy boy.

President Johnson announces that a meeting of the national commission will be held at Cincinnati on November 15, before the drafting season opens for Pacific Coast League players.

When Frank Hebel struck his nose to the Washington club, would get a fine of $100 plastered on him for pitching for the same outfit. Several other major league players probably will be dealt with by the supreme court of baseball for the same offense.

Banquet for Ballplayers.

A reception and banquet will be given by the Foundry baseball team, winners of the Sunday School League pennant and the Evening Star trophy last season, at the Foundry church, on Saturday evening. The Foundry Bible class is actively aiding the committee in the arrangements, and they have invited the young ladies of Mrs. Moore's class, who entertained them last year, to be their guests.

Middies in Basketball Field.

Annapolis, Md., Nov. 5.—Midshipman Homer C. Norton, Ohio, quarter back for the Navy football team, has been elected captain of the first basketball team the Navy Academy has ever organized, and Midshipman Herbert L. Holden, of Portsmouth, Wis., has been selected as the manager of it. Games have already been secured with Yale, Harvard, and other leading teams.

Ashley and Sidney Draw.

Augusta, Me., Nov. 5.—George Ashley, of Fall River, Mass., and Fred Sidney, of Boston, fought fifteen rounds to a draw to-night.

Herald Want Ads
will be received at Taylor's drug store, 9th and P sts. n.w., and promptly forwarded to the main office.

GOLD LADY RUNS GOOD RACE

The Favorite, Landsman, in the Ruck All the Way—Best Day's Racing of the Pimlico Meeting.

Three Favorites Bring Home the Money—Winners on Other Tracks.

Baltimore, Nov. 5.—Orphan lad, running in the colors of the Virginia turfman, David Dunlop, won the Walden stakes for two-year-olds at Pimlico this afternoon. Ridden by the Western jockey, Dennison, Orphan Lad skinned the rail turning for home, and galloped away from his field in the stretch, winning by half a length. The favorite, Landsman, who had a rough passage all the way, ran a remarkable race, getting the place in a drive. Had Gold Lady been able to get through in the early stages she might have given Orphan Lad an argument. Landsman, the favorite, was back in the ruck. The race was a good one from every standpoint. It was run within a quarter of a second of the track record, and until straightened out in the stretch it looked to be any one's race.

The racing was the best of the meeting, nearly all of the events furnishing stirring finishes. In the first and last races only the judges could separate them—Winsome Ways just getting home in front of Lady Vincent, and No Trumper finishing a nose before Widow's Mite. In the steeplechase also the three placed horses were heads apart at the wire.

Frank Somers staggering home in the van, Nihilite defeated Anna Smith by a neck.
Stankout, the favorite, jumped badly, and had no speed at any stage. Belle of Jessamine scored the easiest victory of the day in the mile event, winning pulled up.

In the second race Israelite fell turning for home while he was in the lead, and Finsler fell over him. Barnett, the rider of Israelite, was stunned for a moment, but was unhurt. The horse was tiring at the time.

Trumper were the winning favorites. The

POOR RIDE BEATS WES

Hennessy Twice Rushes the Favorite Into Pocket.

ATHLETE THEN WINS EASILY

Walter Miller Puts Up Perfect Ride and Captures the Glen Cove Handicap—Rosenberg Again Shows His Great Sprinting Quality by Breezing Home in Six-furlong Event.

New York, Nov. 5.—The running of the Glen Cove Handicap for three-year-olds, one and one-sixteenth miles, at Aqueduct to-day, was marred by an incompetent ride on the part of J. Hennessy, who had the leg up on Wes, a hot favorite, who won the race in the first turn, pulling up in each instance and losing many lengths. This sort of handling was such a serious handicap for Wes that he had no chance to do his best, and was third, badly beaten.
Athlete, backed down to 15 to 5, on the other hand, got a perfect ride from Miller, who brought him home an easy winner by three lengths.

Rosenberg was in excellent form at six furlongs. He picked up 147 pounds, and heavily backed at 11 to 20, he simply breezed home. Three favorites landed the money and the talent fared fairly well.
